

Set up Instructions

Step 1: Remove your BloomHouse™ from the pack. Place the hub ends on the ground.

Step 2: Open the Bloomhouse™ from the top and lay it on the ground. It will open up into a star shape. NOTE: It will not lay flat.

Step 3: Reach to the center of the BloomHouse™ and grab the strap attached to the hub. Pull firmly on the strap.

Step 4: The top will pop up.

Step 5: Then lift the top of the BloomHouse™ so you can reach the hub strap of one of the walls. Grab the strap and pull firmly until the wall pops out. As shown in "E & F"

Step 6: Repeat STEP 4 with 3 remaining sides. Pull firmly on each hub strap until all of the walls are popped out. Shown in "G & H".

Step 7: Secure your BloomHouse™ using the supplied stakes. Insert the stakes into the stake holes of the skirt at 45° angle. Keep as much tension on the rope as possible. Repeat this step with all hub locations. For added safety, attach the remaining 4 high-wind tie-downs to the top 4 corners of the BloomHouse™ and secure them with stakes.

Step 8: The doorway and vents of the BloomHouse™ can be secured open for ventilation. To secure them, first unzip them. Roll them up and use the straps to hold them in place. Shown in "11& 12".

Parts List:

- BloomHouse™ (84" x 84" x 84")
- Ground Stakes
- High-Wind Tie-Downs
- Shade Cover

Step 1: To take down your BloomHouse™ begin by removing all high-wind tie-downs and stakes. It may be easier for you to use the head of one stake to remove another. Shown in A.

Step 2: With an open palm, push on the hub of one of the walls. It will collapse. Continue around the BloomHouse™, pushing on the hubs of the walls, until all 4 walls have collapsed.

Step 3: Reach to the center of the BloomHouse™ and push in the hub so the roof will collapse. REMEMBER: It will not lay flat. Shown in "D & E".

Step 4: Gather the corners of the BloomHouse™

Step 5: Use the provided material to tie around it to hold it place.

Step 6: Place the BloomHouse™ in its pack with the hubs down. Store the stakes and high-wind tie-downs in the pouches provided and place them in the pack. Now you can take your BloomHouse™ anywhere!
