

Surgi-Bras

McKesson Surgi-Bras® are designed to provide quick access to the surgical site and therapeutic breast support without sacrificing patient comfort. The premium option features the VELCRO® brand with hook and loop fasteners for the bra straps, an adjustable front enclosure for medium to firm compression, and side straps for drain bulb holders. The regular option has a hook front enclosure for light compression and offers VELCRO® bra straps.

Features and Benefits

- Ideal for therapeutic support following various breast procedures including augmentation, biopsy and smaller mastopexies
- Breathable blend of cotton and spandex to hold dressing in place without tape or wraps
- Premium option available in white and regular option available in black or white
- Familiar bra-like styling for a natural look under clothing
- Not made with natural rubber latex
